Barry Set To Wrap It Up Tonight

GOP PRESIDENTIAL front-runner Sen. Barry Goldwater waves to well-wishers as he crosses street on another of his tours of state delegation caucuses in San Francisco. Despite the fact he claims to have sufficient firm delegates to win a first ballot victory, Goldwater continues to seek new votes. (UPI Telephoto)

2 Boards Submit Integration Plan

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Two school boards have submitted plans to a federal judge to desegregate first grade classrooms in the fall, signaling the end of Mississippi's holdout as the last state without school integration below the college level.

A third board was expected to join the school systems of Jackson and Biloxi today in telling U.S. Dist. Judge Sidney Mize how it would obey his desegregation orders.

"We have our plan in hand," said John T. Logan Jr., superintendent of rural Leake County. "We are all set."

Leake County is the birthplace of former Gov. Ross R. Barnett, who twice physically blocked Negro James H. Meredith from enrolling at the University of Mississippi in 1962.

When Meredith finally arrived on the Ole Miss campus at Oxford to register, a turmoil erupted. Two persons were killed and several hundred were injured.

Judge Mize, 75, a native Mississippian, had given the school boards of Jackson, Biloxi and Leake County until today to submit plans for desegregation.

The Jackson and Biloxi boards filed their plans a day early. They were identical.

Another Mississippi city, Clarksdale in the heavily Negro populated delta region, is under federal court orders to submit a desegregation plan within 15 days.

Woman Has Safety Pin Removed From Her Lung

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Virginia Leavy, 37, attractive mother of two, had an open safety pin in her lung for 14 years but didn't know it.

Doctors at Pittsburgh's Mercy Hospital removed it and Tuesday Mrs. Leavy sat on the edge of her hospital bed and said she felt fine.

Mrs. Leavy, of nearby Greensburg, said she swallowed the pin in 1949 or 1950. "I'm not sure which"—while preparing her infant son for a trip.

"I held the open pin in my mouth for a minute while dressing him—you know, one of those small, gold-colored pins for ribbons and things," she said.

Then she swallowed it—still open. She tried to cough it up. She called a doctor, who told her not to worry as long as there was no pain.

Mrs. Leavy pursued an active life over the next years, swimming, playing badminton, smoking, doing housework and hiking.

Last month after a busy day she "suddenly felt something in my chest."

When she started coughing up blood she called her doctor. A chest X-ray followed and located the pin in her lung, still open.

At first, doctors passed a bronchoscope—a narrow, tube-like instrument—through her

By JACK BELL

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater piloted his thundering campaign jet toward a first-ballot presidential nomination today after bombing out opposition to a GOP platform he personally endorsed.

With the Arizona senator's forces in complete command, the Republican National Convention Tuesday night rejected by overwhelming margins efforts of supporters of Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton to amend a platform on which Goldwater said he would be satisfied to run against President Johnson in November.

Most significant of the actions was the 897-409 vote by which the sometimes noisy and milling delegates rejected a Scranton-backed proposal to amend a plank which promised implementation and execution of the Civil Rights Act.

Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., acted for Scranton in what could only be regarded as a last-gasp effort to provide some oxygen for the governor's fast-expiring challenge to Goldwater for the presidential nomination.

Scott proposed a substitute which would have added a pledge for enforcement of the new law—against which Goldwater voted—by an increased Justice Department staff. It also proposed invoking the 14th Amendment to reduce congressional representation of states which disenfranchise some citizens to vote.

The vote by which delegates batted down this proposal seemed to indicate that when they get around to choosing their nominee tonight Goldwater might exceed the necessary 655 count before the first call of the states even was completed.

An Associated Press survey showed that Goldwater headed into nomination day with 805 votes while Scranton had 169.

Scott, who engineered the losing platform fight, said there would be "no turning back" so far as Scranton is concerned. He predicted the governor will go down to the balloting wire, despite the obvious odds against him.

At one point Tuesday, Scranton said: "It isn't so much a question of whether we win as that we demonstrate to all America that there are persons in our party who do feel this way."

Goldwater, commenting through an aide on the developments, said: "The Republican convention is reflecting the conservative majority in the Republican party."

As matters stood, it was the consensus of his associates that Goldwater would tab Rep. William E. Miller of New York, the GOP national chairman, as his vice presidential running mate. Miller had strong support from New England, Illinois, North Carolina, Arkansas and Mississippi delegates.

The Arizona senator was expected to pick Denison Kitchel, his campaign director, as national chairman to succeed Miller.

In a session lasting past midnight, the convention rejected a total of five proposals to amend the platform and delegates shouted their approval of the draft.

Two amendments dealt with what their sponsors called political extremism, two were in the field of civil rights and a fifth was aimed at Goldwater's suggestion that the North Atlantic Treaty Organization commander be given more supervision over the use of small nuclear weapons to repel attack.

The vote on the civil rights plank was immediately met by a long-planned demonstration of civil rights groups.

Twenty civil rights demonstrators sat down in the turnstile of the Cow Palace's main exit, forcing the delegates to turn and push their way to side exits.

Police stood close to the demonstrators, and there were no scuffles between the gate blockers or their nearby picketing friends and the delegates. The delegates were able to get out of the Cow Palace through the side exits in 15 minutes.

Mrs. Barry Goldwater, wife of the expected presidential nominee, occupied a front-row box seat at the then-quiet convention while former President Dwight D. Eisenhower addressed the delegates.

Eisenhower, given an ovation, urged the Republicans to avoid factional strife and renew their strength "from the fountain of unity."

There was a roar of applause when Eisenhower condemned "sensational-seeking" newspaper columnists and commentators. He urged the delegates to ignore their "divisive efforts."

Responding to cries of "more," Eisenhower described such columnists and commentators as "turn to GOP, Page 3")

Goldwater Vote Total Put At 805

Could Have More When Nominating Roll Starts Tonight

By LARRY OSIUS

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater loped toward the finish line today in his race for the Republican presidential nomination, so far ahead of Gov. William W. Scranton that he wasn't even winded.

Goldwater's first-ballot vote strength passed the 800 level Tuesday, according to The Associated Press survey. By the time the nominating roll is called tonight the Arizona senator could have many more.

With 655 needed to nominate, Goldwater had 805 votes in the AP poll compared with 169 for Scranton, his nearest challenger.

The survey, based on primary election commitments, instructions, pledges and stated preferences, showed this first-ballot breakdown:

Goldwater	805
Scranton	169
Nelson A. Rockefeller	108
Henry Cabot Lodge	44
Margaret Chase Smith	20
Favorite sons	112
Uncommitted	50

Goldwater's total included 118 committed by primary elections 257 by convention instructions, 60 personally pledged and 370 who favor him but are not committed. None of Scranton's votes are pledged or bound.

Goldwater forces looked for a further increase today from the Wisconsin delegation, if it is released by Rep. John W. Byrnes, the favorite son. Byrnes was expected to announce his decision at a caucus this morning. Most of the 30 delegates are believed poised to jump on the Goldwater bandwagon.

LISBON — With the deadline set for 4 p. m. today, a total of $1,978,176 had been collected through Tuesday on real estate taxes for the second half of 1963, County Treasurer Vincent C. Judge said.

Shoots Down Hopes Of Scranton Forces

All 58 Ohio Delegate Votes Cast Against Change In Rights Plank

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Ohio didn't have too many big moments Tuesday in the marathon session of the Republican National Convention, but its biggest one was something of a stunner.

That was when former U.S. Sen. John W. Bricker stood up to cast all 58 Buckeye votes against a proposed change in the GOP civil rights plank of the 1964 platform.

The unanimous vote came at a dramatic moment in the convention's first roll call.

It shot down the hopes of the forces of Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton just a few moments after those hopes had been buoyed by a substantial favorable vote from New York.

The Ohio vote on the first convention roll call was important in three ways:

—It made it plain that Scranton could hope for little or no help from his Ohio neighbors in today's big test for the presidential nomination.

—It made it plain that the Ohioans are satisfied with the civil rights plank as originally written.

—It was a solid vote of confidence in Rep. William McCulloch, veteran Republican congressman from Piqua, Ohio.

U.S. To Boost Manpower In Viet By 600

Nearly Half To Be Special Forces In Reversing Cutback

WASHINGTON (AP)—Reversing a cutback started last year, the United States will increase its military manpower in South Viet Nam by about 600 men during the next few months.

Nearly half of this figure will be additional Special Forces, made available to provide more U.S. advisers working in the field with South Viet Nam's regular army and to establish more special forces training units near the border between South Viet Nam and Laos.

Word of the U.S. manpower increase came along with new information on infiltration of North Vietnamese regular army personnel into the south.

The additions will raise the total of U.S. Special Forces in Viet Nam to about 1,000, and the total U.S. strength there to about 16,000 men.

Last fall, before a series of changes in the South Viet Nam government and a step-up in

19 Firemen Killed In Huge Tokyo Blaze

TOKYO (AP)—Firemen battled through the night to control a huge chemical fire in which 19 firemen were killed and 46 other persons were injured.

The fire and explosions destroyed a storage dump crammed with drums of oil, paint thinner, cellulose nitrate and other combustible chemicals. Damage was estimated at about $280,000.

On Mr. K Recommendation

Mikoyan Named Soviet President

MOSCOW (AP)—On the recommendation of Premier Khrushchev, Leonid I. Brezhnev was relieved today of his post as Soviet president and Anastas I. Mikoyan was elected to succeed him.

Khrushchev told a meeting of the Supreme Soviet, the Soviet parliament, that Brezhnev is needed for full-time work in the Communist party.

The party is the seat of real power in the Soviet Union and Brezhnev is regarded as Khrushchev's heir-apparent.

Khrushchev said he wanted "to express my cordial gratitude to Leonid Ilyich Brezhnev for his fruitful work" as president. Brezhnev held the figurehead position for four years.

Mikoyan, who was relieved of his post as a first deputy premier, was wished success by Khrushchev.

Mikoyan said in the crowded hall where Russian Zsars once were crowned that "I will do my best to justify your confidence, to fight, to work for the victory of communism together with you."

There were then smiling handshakes all around but none of the hugging and kissing that marked Brezhnev's appointment.

Graham's Action Leaves Commissioner Job Open

NEW CUMBERLAND — A vacancy created on the Hancock County Board of Commissioners by the death of Robert E. Roach was left open Tuesday after William C. Graham, president, failed to second a motion by James Finley of Weirton, his fellow commissioner, to name to the post Jack Evans, a New Cumberland painting contractor.

Finley sought to name Evans as Clay District commissioner, filling the seat left vacant by the death of Mr. Roach.

The action came at the commissioners' regular meeting yesterday at the Courthouse.

Clarence (Bud) Means resigned today as principal of East Junior High School to accept a two-year contract as principal of Toronto High School beginning Aug. 1.

The 35-year old Means appeared before the Toronto Board of Education Monday night and was offered the principals' post. Means notified the board Tuesday afternoon he had accepted the post, according to P. I. Van Brunt, Toronto school superintendent.

Means replaces Richard Meckley, who had been Toronto High principal since 1961. Meckley will return to Ohio State University to obtain a doctorate.

3 Killed In Crash Of German Airliner

ANSBACH, Germany (AP)—A Boeing 720 jet airliner of West Germany's Lufthansa Airlines crashed today on a test flight, killing all three persons aboard.

Police at this Bavarian town southwest of Nuernberg said the plane crashed into a wooded area about 2 miles from a U.S. Army air strip at Kettelsbach.

"We must presume that the pilot was attempting an emergency landing there," a police spokesman here said.

He said the three bodies had been recovered.

A Lufthansa spokesman said the three persons were employees of the West German airline.

Ike Urges Party Unity In Address

Prescription For GOP Victory Given By Ex-President

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Unite behind the party's basic principles—that is Dwight D. Eisenhower's prescription for Republican victory.

Eisenhower, who captured the presidency for the Republicans in 1952 and 1956, put it this way in an address Tuesday night to the Republican National Convention: "Let us renew our strength from the fountain of unity, not drown ourselves in a whirlpool of factional strife and divisive ambitions."

Eisenhower, 73, and his wife, Mamie, received a thunderous ovation from the convention delegates in the Cow Palace.

"I must ask you to bank the fires of fiercely competitive intraparty politics and contemplate with me the whole of this great party of ours—the reasons for its birth, its record of valuable service, and the bright promise of its future," he said.

Eisenhower declared that "strength is found in unity, under a consensus broad enough to accommodate the honest thinking of all who subscribe to our basic doctrines."

Eisenhower has refused to take sides in the battle over the picking of the party's presidential candidate or the writing of a platform. He frequently has described himself as someone to whom all factions seem willing to turn for counsel.

After his address, he was presented with the Republican Convention Badge of Honor by Massachusetts Atty. Gen. Edward W. Brooks, a Negro who holds the highest elective office in the nation of any member of his race.

Brooks described Eisenhower as a man who has been a leader of the nation in war and peace.

Crowd Seen At Rites For Nurses Home

A crowd is expected to attend a dedication ceremony Friday afternoon at 2 for the newly-completed Metsch-Harker Residence at the City Hospital Training School for Nurses.

J. Donald Thompson, president of the Board of Trustees of the City Hospital Association, will speak at the dedication rite.

An open house will follow from 4 to 9 to allow the public to inspect the new building.

The Rev. M. Rudolph Miller of Trinity United Presbyterian Church will give the invocation and benediction at the dedicatory rite.

Miss Nell Robinson, hospital administrator, disclosed that the first class of 30 student nurses is due to report to the new building Sunday afternoon.

Miss Robinson added that about 30 more nurses already in training at the old nursing school will move into the new structure sometime in the middle of next week.

The old nursing school building, located in front of the new structure, will be razed soon.

tors as people "who couldn't care less about our party."

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who will introduce the presidential nominee, told a news conference Tuesday that Goldwater had moved "from the status of the senator from Arizona to the position of the nominee of his party—and it could happen tomorrow."

Scranton said that no matter what happens he will support the Republican ticket actively in November.

But he said he doesn't think it would be "helpful to our party" to take second place on the ticket.

Scranton refused to repudiate a savagely worded attack on Goldwater in a letter sent from his headquarters to the Arizona.

"It is true that I did not write it and did not see it and did not sign it," Scranton said. But he added that since it was prepared by his staff "I do not disavow responsibility for that letter."

The letter accused Goldwater of advocating irresponsible actions and his managers of treating convention delegates like "a flock of chickens whose necks will be wrung at will."

West Virginia GOP To Back Goldwater

SAN FRANCISCO — West Virginia's delegation to the Republican National Convention was aboard the Barry Goldwater bandwagon today, with prospects it would give him 10 of its 14 votes for the GOP presidential nomination.

Four of the previously uncommitted delegates swung behind Goldwater in an informal poll of the delegation on the convention floor Tuesday night. And it was considered likely that the two previously uncommitted delegates, absent at the time the poll was taken, would also cast theirs for him at a formal caucus today.

The other four votes were to be split two each for Pennsylvania Gov. William Scranton and New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

Publicly joining the Goldwater drive Tuesday night were delegation Chairman Chapman Revercomb of Charleston, Dav-Elkins of Elkins, Lawrence C. White of Parkersburg and W. H. Ballard II of Welch.

Tom Sweeney of Wheeling, Cooper Benedict of Lewisburg, Clyde B. Pinson of Huntington and Hugh Shott of Bluefield previously had declared for Goldwater.

Former Gov. Cecil H. Underwood of Huntington, Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr. of Glen Dale and M. G. Mal Guthrie of Charleston were absent at the time Revercomb polled the delegation.

ment to the presidency May 7, 1960.

Later, Mikoyan, Brezhnev and Khrushchev sat together on the platform, apparently joking as the parliament continued its business.

Mikoyan, 68, a Bolshevik who has been at the top of the Soviet leadership since early in the Stalin era, looked solemn before his transfer to the presidency. He has been a confidant and international trouble-shooter for Khrushchev.

He wore a single medal on his dark blue suit. This is unusual for Mikoyan, who normally does not display his many Soviet honors.

Khrushchev had his usual five medals on his light blue suit. Brezhnev, a squarish looking former steelworker, left his medals at home.

Monthly Report Given By Welfare Director

LISBON — The number of children under the care of the Columbiana County Welfare Department increased by one during June, Robert Bycroft, director, reported in a monthly summary.

On June 1, the department had 185 children under its care. It added 16 during the month and dismissed 15.

Beginning July 1, the department had 186 children on its rolls — 118 in boarding homes, 21 adoptive, 23 with relatives, 10 free or wage, nine in the receiving home and five in institutions.

a chief author and manager of the civil rights bill which recently made its way through Congress and is now on the nation's lawbooks.

McCulloch, although suffering a severe case of laryngitis, appeared briefly before the convention in support of the Republican civil rights plank he helped prepare.

McCulloch, a former speaker of the Ohio House of Representatives, argued the Scranton-backed amendment "really adds nothing in substance" to the rights plank.

He said the plank provides for "full implementation of the federal civil rights law, is clear in meaning and is fully constitutional."

"This is an excellent plank and I hope you will reject the amendment as it should be rejected."

Since the amendment was the announced showdown issue between the Scranton forces and backers of front-running Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, the McCulloch plank weathered the storm handsly.

Interviewed a few hours before the big floor test, McCulloch declined to say whether he was one of the 42 Goldwater supporters voting in the secret caucus Monday of the Ohio delegation.

The congressman asserted the new federal civil rights bill is the best in a quarter-century.

"There has been a lot of plat-form talk in demagogic ways in recent years about civil rights, but we finally have something down in writing as the law of the land," he said.

Asked what impelled him to become a civil rights leader from his largely rural western Ohio home base, McCulloch put it simply:

"Just say it's a Scotch-Presbyterian conscience on a moral issue."

Viet Nam

Viet Cong attacks, the United States had set out to cut back the number of U.S. military men stationed there. About 1,000 of the 16,500 then assigned were pulled back. The new contingents will replace part of that total.

It was understood the decision to send the additional men was reached before the assignment of Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, former chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff as ambassador to South Viet Nam and the elevation of Gen. William Westmoreland to head the U.S. military command there.

No figures were available on the extent of North Vietnamese infiltration into South Viet Nam. Robert McCloskey, State Department press officer, said there is a continuing influx of small groups of guerrillas and of Communist-made military equipment.

McCloskey said he could not confirm reports of either large-scale infiltrations of men or an increased flow of military supplies into the area.

McCloskey did say that equipment made in the Soviet Union, Czechoslovakia and Communist China has been found in the northern mountains of South Viet Nam.

Shoe On The Other Foot

Everything is supposed to be fair in love, war and politics. But a harshly phrased letter from Gov. William W. Scranton to Sen. Barry M. Goldwater strained the supposition to the breaking point.

There are limits even to political excess. In the judgment of many delegates to the Republican National Convention, the Scranton letter exceeded the limits. Gov. Scranton, himself, when he realized how many Republicans had been offended by the letter's intemperate tone, let it be known he was not the author.

That would have been bad enough, but when it later was hinted that he might not have read the letter either, the episode left a bad taste. If a matter of this much significance in the Scranton campaign to stop the Goldwater nomination drive could happen without the central figure's direct knowledge, who was pulling the strings?

Who wanted Sen. Goldwater stopped at a price so stiff it would force Gov. Scranton to admit things had been taken out of his hands?

Was there really among Gov. Scranton's backers an "establishment" as self-willed and ruthless as critics of Eastern Influence had been saying it was?

WHEN THE Eastern wing of the Republican party was flapping the rest of the party into submission in the Willie-Dewey-Eisenhower era, protests and objections were consistently shouted down and voted down.

In the end, Eastern Influence always was dominant because it was beamed up with important money. But now the center of political influence has shifted from the East to the West. The shoe is on the other foot, when it comes to grinning and bearing it in a political convention. The Western wing is doing the flapping now. If the letter which Gov. Scranton says he didn't write and may never have seen before it created a sensation in the San Francisco convention is a sample of Eastern reaction, the Republican party is in for a rough time.

IT NEVER OCCURRED to the losers in previous conventions to resort to dirty tactics when defeat was imminent.

They were always supposed to grin and bear it like good sports for the sake of the Grand Old Party, and mostly that's what they did.

Even Ohio Sen. Taft, principal victim of the "establishment," could forgive and forget after his shameful treatment in 1952 and patch things up with Gen. Eisenhower.

It won't be easy to forgive and forget the Scranton letter that Gov. Scranton said he didn't write and may not have read.

Whoever put it into circulation was doing something calculated to split the Republican party. That now appears to have been its purpose.

Matter Of Concern

Concern has been expressed that the rackets again may be on the move in the city of Wheeling — which has the dubious distinction of having been branded "wide open" many times in the past.

When the terms "rackets" and "wide open" are tossed about, thoughts almost automatically turn to the "gambling strip" and the "liquor strip" in nearby upper Hancock County.

The Review time and again has expressed concern about this problem and in view of latest reports is expressing such concern anew.

It would be most heartening if someone with the proper authority in the state of West Virginia would do likewise.

Biking Is Fun, But Dangerous

Six deaths and 153 injuries resulting from bicycle accidents have been recorded over the state of Ohio for January, February, March and April. Of the injuries, 95 were in urban areas and 58 in rural areas. Bicycle accidents totaled 1,125 in 1963.

The figures, supplied by the Ohio Department of Highway Safety, are rather shocking.

As Warren C. Nelson, state highway safety director, points out, "Careless bicycle riders, like irresponsible automobile drivers, cause traffic accidents and bring grief to families."

East Liverpool and nearby Ohio communities have experienced their share of mishaps, as have our neighbors in West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

If bicyclists remember the following basic rules, it is quite likely that the accident figures can be reduced considerably:

When walking your bike along the road, walk against the traffic.

When riding as a group, ride single file and pay attention to driving instead of talking.

Watch for pedestrians.

Never Off The Ground

A coincidence in timing brought Republican criticism of the Democratic administration for developing no new missile systems at the same time the Department of Defense was letting Project Pluto slip down the drain.

The Department of Defense was notified on July 1 by a spokesman for the Atomic Energy Commission that the commission was abandoning attempts to develop a low-flying, atomic-powered missile because no military interest had been shown.

In a New York Times report on the notification it was pointed out that insiders thought the decision had been made by Secretary of Defense McNamara. If so—and under any circumstances—it was noteworthy because Project Pluto had been proceeding better than the other abandoned missile projects that have cost hundreds of millions of dollars without any results.

Pluto was to have been propelled by a compact atomic reactor that would power a ram-jet engine capable of developing a speed of 2,000 miles an hour. Because the missile would have been capable of doing this at low altitudes it might have been the answer to the anti-missile missiles that the Soviet Union says it has developed. With global range and little possibility of detection, the Pluto had attracted enthusiastic interest by both the Navy and the Air Force.

All the preliminary work had been done. The missile was ready for flight tests. But the AEC, having carried through the preliminary work much more successfully than has been the case with most missiles, wanted assurance that the Department of Defense was interested before going ahead.

The Department of Defense showed no interest.

It was a coincidence that it showed no interest when the Republican party was looking for campaign issues.

Purely Personal

One of those misspellings that plague writing people tripped me up in a reference to Boston's Scollay Square. What made it hurt is that the lady I go to Boston with spotted the misspelling and said she could have told me how to spell it if I'd asked her. Instead, I asked someone else and got a bum steer.

Whenever I think of political conventions, I remember watching a once-famous figure in government die by inches on the back platform waiting for his name to be called for a major speech. The biggest shots are no different from the rest of us when they feel butterflies in the belly.

My idea of covering a lawn with "undertakers' grass," which always would be green, never would need mowing and could be brought inside every winter never sounded better than it does this year, with natural lawns burned out and only the noxious weeds showing . . . green.

My handiest discovery in everyday conveniences is a squeeze bottle for dispensing the glue that is a prime requisite for newspaper desk workers. I have used various dispensers over the years, none of them a tenth as satisfactory as this.

My brother, whom I resemble, is at the Republican National Convention, which I mention only in event someone thinks he sees me in a TV shot of the goings-on in San Francisco. I never appear on camera. I'm camera-shy. I won't be at the Democratic National Convention either.

I am not among those who feel let down because Dwight D. Eisenhower has failed to show acute political acumen. He never pretended to be a politician. It was one of the things that made him attractive in 1952 to people who had been polioed to distraction.

Anxiety is what a flat-country motorist feels in hilly country when followed closely by a diesel truck whose driver is maintaining efficient constant speed by keeping his rig rolling — right up to the tail pipe of the passenger car with the out-of-state license and the cautious driver.

Man's Inhumanity To Man

Austria Tackles 'Neutral' Challenge

Victor Riesel is on a news gathering expedition in Africa and Eastern Europe. During his absence his column is being written by leaders in the business, professional, labor and political life of the country. Today's guest wrote the following column on a recent visit to the U.S.

By DR. JOSEF KLAUS
Federal Chancellor of Austria

VIENNA
Austria has proved its will for self-determination between 1945 and 1955—the era of Allied occupation and economic reconstruction.

In the following decade, from 1955 to 1965, the main task has been to meet the obligations resulting from the Austrian State Treaty, which restored the country's political sovereignty. This was achieved by the end of 1963, when the deliveries of $150 million worth of industrial goods and shipment of 6 million tons of crude oil to the Soviet Union, were completed.

Over the same period, moreover, the Austrian gross national product was expanded by 85 per cent. Now Austria has to meet the challenge that confronts a neutral country in a Europe which, in the West, has most tightly united itself within the framework of the Common Market, while in the Communist bloc the traits of national self-reliance are becoming stronger.

I TOOK the office of federal chancellor on April 2 of this year, at a time when the decision-making capability of Austria was still greatly tested and when the cooperation between the country's two largest parties, which had lasted since 1945, underwent some major trials during the last months.

In my first statement of policy I endorsed the continuation and renewal of the cooperation between the two leading parties, and I'm as much convinced as before that the best remedy for a coalition which experiences difference of opinion is a therapy of work and action.

In my Statement of Policy I asserted that Austria's foreign policy will, in the future also, be guided by the principle of permanent neutrality.

The Law of Neutrality passed by the Austrian Parliament on October 26, 1955, under which Austria will not join any military treaty or allow any military bases by foreign powers on its soil, is explicit in its wording. It does not require, therefore, a new interpretation by the federal government.

THE MOST URGENT task of the country's foreign policy is for Austria to settle its relationship with the European Economic Community or Common Market.

Since about half of Austria's exports go to the member nations of the Common Market, all efforts have to be made in order to prevent a limitation of this export opportunity, as already happened and still is to be feared as a result of a steadily growing discrimination against Austrian products.

In view of the country's neutrality and the obligations resulting from the State Treaty, the Austrian government has to pay great attention to the fact that the negotiations with the Six, which hopefully will soon be forthcoming, are going to lead to a satisfactory agreement on the following subjects:

1. Maintenance of a sovereign trade policy.
2. Establishment of common institutions which will comply with Austria's status under the international law.
3. Assurance that own supplies will be safeguarded to a certain extent.

As a member of the Outer

Seven, Austria will, as long as the ground rules of the arrangement with the Common Market have not been established, continue to work loyally towards the further progress of EFTA.

THE LONG DESIRED and, since last year, achieved improvements in tourist traffic with Hungary and Czechoslovakia not only helped to re-establish the traditional ties which had been cut during the last few decades but also lead to a confrontation between the different social and political systems on a broader front.

Austria is in this case in a better position than is possible along the Berlin Wall to demonstrate the advantages of Western life to the people of Eastern Europe.

But not only on its foreign policy course is the federal government preparing Austria for its role in the Europe of tomorrow. The domestic issues of my government program were headed by tasks in the cultural field.

The decisive consideration for this was not only the importance which the formation of intellectual potential for economic growth has, but the belief that Austria will have to fulfill a function in the intellectual and cultural life of Europe and the world far above the limitations of a small nation.

Down Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO—Mrs. Leslie Tatgenhorst, past grand templar of Ohio Temple No. 1, Ladies of the Golden Eagle, installed Mrs. Nannie Leaf as noble templar, along with other officers.

Commander Clyde Platt of the Wellsville American Legion Post headed a delegation of members to the 10th District convention at Dover.

TWENTY YEARS AGO—Pfc. David H. Ralston and Petty Officer Billy Palmer, both from Smiths Ferry, met on the beachheads during the invasion of France.

Comprised of five members, a community service panel was organized to act in conjunction with the East Liverpool ration board. Mrs. Florence Howell was chairman.

TEN YEARS AGO — Everson Hall shot a five under par 67 for the best score turned in this season at the East Liverpool Country Club.

Mrs. Paul Culler was installed as president of the auxiliary of the American Legion Post at Lisbon.

The congregation of the St. George Serbian Orthodox Church of Midland voted to purchase the property adjacent to the church at 10th St. and Midland Ave.

Letter To Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

I was a member of the East Liverpool High School band from 1939 to 1942, so it was with considerable pride that I watched the present high school twin bands march and play concerts at the recent Balloon Festival held at Ashland, Ohio.

Mr. Vincent Maola and the band members deserve a tremendous amount of credit for a remarkable performance. They were easily the best musical organization to appear here in a long time and there were bands from Mansfield, Cleveland and many other Ohio cities. Everyone who heard them was high in praise and, in fact, are still talking about them.

Being a former band member, I know the great amount of time and work by the band members, director and band mothers in order to create an organization of this high caliber.

The citizens of East Liverpool should be very proud of their band as they were certainly excellent goodwill ambassadors for your city and we hope they will return next year.

'Climbing Aboard'

By David Lawrence

Delegates Don't Like To Be Left Behind

SAN FRANCISCO — This is the convention in which the pot calls the kettle black.

Originally the spokesmen of Gov. Scranton accused Sen. Goldwater of accepting the support of "extremists." But now it's the other way around.

For Gov. Scranton has just furnished David Lawrence an example of "extremism" almost unprecedented in the history of party conventions.

He sent a letter under his name that was so bitter and so full of innuendoes that Sen. Goldwater decided not to answer it, and actually returned it. But the letter produced a bitterness and resentment in the atmosphere of the convention which doesn't bode well for the party.

SUCH ATTACKS might have been understandable, politically speaking, if Gov. Scranton were aiming at Democrats, but to distort and misrepresent the other fellow's position in one's own party just isn't political cricket.

If anything were calculated to impair Gov. Scranton's future at this or any other convention, it is his mistake in the letter he made public late Sunday night.

In some quarters it is believed the Pennsylvania governor himself couldn't have written such an intemperate attack on a personal friend and that, in his emotional excitement over events here, he signed something prepared for him by ill-advised advisers.

ONE BY ONE Gov. Scranton's pieces of strategy are falling down. His demand for certain platform planks has failed. In fact, the Republican platform is far more dynamic and contains a better balanced set of planks than was thought possible a month ago.

The platform, which is supported strongly by the Goldwater people, removes many misunderstandings and disposes of misrepresentations about the Arizona senator's real beliefs.

Indeed, many Democrats could say the principles are logical and well balanced, but they would differ as to just how such principles would be implemented and as to the man best qualified to carry them out.

HERE, for example, are some of the Republican planks on foreign policy:

"A dynamic strategy aimed at victory — pressing always for initiatives for freedom, rejecting always appeasement and withdrawal — reduces the risk of nuclear war.

"It is a nation's vacillation, not firmness, that tempts an aggressor into war. It is accommodation, not opposition, that encourages a hostile nation to remain hostile and to remain aggressive.

THE ROAD TO PEACE is a road not of fawning amiability but of strength and respect. Republicans judge foreign policy by its success in advancing freedom and justice, not by its effect on international prestige polls. . . .

"We are opposed to recognition of Red China. We oppose its admission into the United Nations. We steadfastly support Free China.

"In negotiations with Communists, Republicans will probe tirelessly for reasonable, practicable and trustworthy agreements. However, we will never abandon insistence on advantages for the free world. . . .

"REPUBLICANS support the United Nations. However, we will press for a change in the method of voting in the General Assembly and in the specialized agencies that will reflect population disparities among the member states and recognize differing abilities and willingness to meet the obligations of the charter."

There isn't anything in the platform to bear out the "extremist" charges that recently have alleged that Sen. Goldwater is anxious to break up the United Nations or that he wants to start a nuclear war.

SMALL WONDER that European newspapers whose editors have been reading such distortions have been so critical in the pre-convention weeks.

But there isn't a single piece of evidence in any of the various platform planks now adopted or rejected which has borne out such "extremist" concepts.

Sen. Goldwater is making substantial progress toward winning the nomination because he is acting in a dignified way and like a political veteran.

In desperation, spokesmen for the opposition are behaving impulsively, like juveniles, and are losing ground.

It looks now as if the Goldwater nomination will come on the first ballot and that even some of the dissenting delegations will move to make it unanimous.

BUT, WHEN all is said and done, the Republicans will find that some of the misrepresentations made in their own party fight will have been given credence by many voters and that the task of setting them right will be correspondingly more difficult.

It hasn't been a happy convention for the Republican party.

Meany On Job Issue

By Joseph R. Slevin

AFL-CIO president, George Meany is sternly reminding the Republicans and the Democrats that the U. S. still has a serious unemployment problem.

The heavy-set labor spokesman took his case to the GOP Platform Committee last Wednesday and will carry the same message to the Democrats in Atlantic City next month.

Meany's complaint is that the critically important jobless rate has been above 5 per cent for the last seven years. It has been edging down slowly, but he predicts that the improvement will be only temporary.

The AFL-CIO leader is pressing a view that many government economists fully endorse in private. The federal experts are saying nothing in public, for the official administration forecast is that unemployment will drop below 5 per cent before the end of 1964 and well toward an "interim" goal of 4 per cent in 1965.

But the government economists are increasingly skeptical that these goals will be reached.

They became optimistic when the jobless rate unexpectedly dropped to 5.1 per cent in May. Their optimism vanished, though, when the rate bounced back to 5.3 per cent in June.

What the experts find disturbing is that unemployment is holding above 5 per cent even though the American economy is growing rapidly. Production is rising almost 5 per cent a year, and that is a more vigorous upsurge than either President Johnson or the late President Kennedy had hoped to achieve.

What, then, has gone wrong? The economists stress that there are several pieces to the puzzle.

The population is growing, and the number of jobseekers is increasing at a clip that makes it necessary to create some 1.4 million new jobs a year.

Productivity is continuing to climb strongly. That means that industry can turn out more goods with fewer workers and that tens of thousands of people are being forced to find new jobs each week.

The challenge facing the economy is to grow fast enough to provide employment for a growing population, for the people who are losing their jobs, and for some of those who now are unemployed.

It is a big order, and the sluggish decline in the jobless rate means that it has been proving too big an order for the economy to fill.

The unemployment rate has averaged 5.4 per cent during the past six months, which is only four-tenths of one per cent below the 5.8 per cent average of the first half of 1963.

Government officials look at the decline from 5.8 to 5.4 that took a full year to achieve and wonder where the thrust will come from to drive the rate down to the administration's 4 per cent goal.

Driver, 17, Charged In Beechwood Crash

A 17-year-old driver was cited by police as an aftermath of a minor auto mishap Tuesday at 9:14 p. m. on Rubicon St. at Anderson Blvd. in Beechwood.

Charges of improper backing were filed by Patrolman Samuel E. Hayes against Lauren M. Booth, 310 Gaddes St., after the collision that involved her 1940 two-door sedan and a 1963 four-door sedan operated by Raymond Hess, 52, of 1755 Anderson Blvd.

The young driver was cited to Juvenile Court.

Police said the two autos were halted for a stop sign at the intersection when the young woman backed, striking the front bumper of the Hess auto.

According to latest estimates, 78 per cent of the households in the United States have automobiles, and 11.4 million households now have two or more cars. Two out of every three adults in the U. S. have driver licenses.

TWO GREAT DANGERS TO YOUR EYES

There are many causes of blindness, from congenital defects to accidents. But, two different degenerative and progressive diseases are a great danger to persons over 40. Senile cataracts cause about 13% and Glaucoma 14% of all blindness.

But cataracts can be safely removed and glaucoma can be controlled, providing the diagnosis of either is made and treatment begun in its early stages. The only sure way to guard against these two dangers is to have your eyes examined by a Doctor every two years after the age of 40. It takes an expert to diagnose them.

17 Killed, 21 Wounded In Red Ambush

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A Communist Viet Cong battalion ambushed a Vietnamese government truck convoy rumbling into a mountain valley Tuesday, killing 17 and wounding 21. It was the second major ambush in two days.

On Monday three American officers and 16 Vietnamese were killed north of Saigon in an ambush.

No Americans were with the latest Vietnamese convoy, heading from Tam Ky near South Viet Nam's northeast coast toward the mountain valley of Phuoc Chau when it was hit.

The ambush was further indication that the Communists are increasing their effort in that area. A U.S. military spokesman said Viet Cong activity there "has shifted its center of gravity from the mountains to the coastal area."

Incidents have increased greatly in the past 10 days in the Tam Ky sector. However they are still below incident totals in some other military regions in Viet Nam.

The ambush took place eight miles inland from Tam Ky, a Vietnamese spokesman said.

votes, with more than 900 of them coming from his own Clay District.

The successor in Mr. Roach's seat will serve until a new commissioner is named in the November general election. However, Graham said the appointed successor probably will serve until Dec. 31 because county tradition has it that newly-elected officials take office Jan. 1.

In other business, Graham and Finley voted to let a contract to Call Reindexing Co. of Columbus for reindexing county deed records and 46 of the old deed books in the county clerk's office. Charles Arnold, the Call firm's representative, said the work will cost $8,600.

The commissioners then asked Arnold to submit a separate bid for re-indexing 95 deed-of-trust record books in the clerk's office. Arnold estimated the cost of this project would be around $12,000. He said he will consult with his company.

Atty. Edwin Flowers, representing the Hancock County

Bar Association, said the county attorneys prefer to have the deed records on a par with other counties in the area and urged the re-indexing to be completed as soon as possible.

Another contract was awarded by the commissioners to Pat-sy DueVono of Burgettstown for blacktopping, raising a sewer and grading the area behind the Courthouse. DeVono said the blacktopping will cost $2,702.

The commissioners then stipulated that the blacktopping, together with the work on the sewer and the grading, should not run over $3,000.

World Races Toward End, Graham Says

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The world is racing toward its end, evangelist Billy Graham declared Tuesday night as he compared the present with the time just before the Biblical downfall of ancient Israel and the flood which covered the world.

"Not only do I have the word of God that there will be an end but I have the word that Noah never had—the word of the greatest scientists today," Graham told an estimated 30,000, the largest crowd of his 10-day Ohio Crusade, now half over.

He quoted an unidentified scientist as saying it is now possible to destroy all civilization in six hours.

Graham said the Bible says the second coming of Christ and the end of the world will come when things are as they were in the day of Noah. As in that time, he said, there now is much divorce, emphasis on sex, worldwide lawlessness, war, hatred, greed and bitterness.

"The reason God doesn't come in judgment this very night is because he loves you and he is giving you a chance to turn from your sins," he asserted.

Yankees 4-3 Win Cuts Orioles Lead To Only 1/2 Game

Pirates Keep Phillies From Gaining As Giants Bow

Pizarro Claims 13th For Chisox

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

The trouble with the Baltimore Orioles is they can't win those one-run ball games.

The trouble is only three days old but it's beginning to tell on the pennant-hungry Orioles. They dropped a 4-3 decision to New York Tuesday night in the opener of a vital three-game set and saw their American League lead dwindle to one-half game over the on-rushing Yankees.

The Orioles suddenly have lost their touch in pressure games after reeling off 21 victories in their first 23 one-run contests. They were beaten twice by Detroit—each time by a 4-3 score in 10 innings—before Mickey Mantle, Tom Tresh and Al Downing collaborated for Tuesday night's Yankee victory before a New York crowd of 38,102.

Stu Miller, the wily junkman of the Baltimore bullpen, was the victim of eighth inning hits by Mantle and Tresh that broke a 3-3 tie and gave the Yankees their fifth straight triumph. Downing weathered a ninth inning storm and won his fourth in a row with a six-hitter.

Elsewhere in the AL, Juan Pizarro became the league's first 13-game winner as Chicago topped Boston 4-2; Washington nipped Minnesota 4-3; Detroit beat Los Angeles by the same score and Cleveland outlasted Kansas City 9-7.

Mantle lined a single off Miller, making his 38th appearance in relief, with one out in the eighth. Mickey moved to second on a groundout and tallied the deciding run on Tresh's bloop hit to right.

Baltimore had tied the score in the seventh on two walks and Bob Johnson's record-breaking pinch hit single. The hit was Johnson's sixth straight as a pinch swinger, topping the AL mark previously shared by Johnny Mize, Vic Wertz and Bob Hale.

The Orioles scored single runs in the fourth and fifth innings. The Yankees bunched three of their six hits around a walk and infield out for three fourth-inning runs.

Baltimore loaded the bases with two out in the ninth on two passes and Luis Aparicio's infield hit but Downing got Norm Siebern on a fly to Mantle for the final out.

Pizarro held the Red Sox to five hits, including Dick Stuart's 18th homer, for eight innings and ran his record to 13-4 with last-inning help from knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm.

Run-scoring hits by Ron Hansen and Gerry McNertney gave the White Sox a 2-0 budge in the second inning and they added a pair of unearned runs in the third.

The Senators snapped a 3-3 tie in the fifth on Ed Brinkman's single, a two-base throwing error by Minnesota pitcher Jim Kaat and an infield out. Claude Osteen survived Harmon Killebrew's 32nd homer, a two-run shot, and picked up his seventh victory.

Detroit won its 12th game in 15 July starts, scoring the deciding run in the eighth on Gates Brown's double and Don Demeter's single. Demeter also homered and Bill Freehan collected three of 10 Tiger hits.

Home runs by Leon Wagner, Tito Francona and Woodie Held pushed Cleveland to a 7-3 lead over Kansas City but the A's fought back to tie in the eighth when Dick Green and Rocky Colavito homered and Ken Harrelson hit his second circuit of the game. Held's run-scoring single and Dick Howser's squeeze bunt won it for the Indians in the ninth.

Even Berra Gets Excited Over Win

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—"This had to be the most exciting game of the year. I don't ever remember being as nervous as I was in that ninth inning."

This was Yogi Berra's reaction—after taking time to settle his nerves—following Tuesday night's 4-3 squeaker over Baltimore that moved the New York Yankees to within two points of the first place Orioles.

That ninth inning left even staid Yankees, who are supposed to be accustomed to such things, spent from excitement.

"One game is no more important than the next," said Cleve Boyer, who contributed a fielding gem in that dramatic inning. "But it was a must game for both teams. It could turn out to be the most important game of the year."

"I don't remember a game this year I wanted to win as much as this one," said Mickey Mantle, who scored the winning run in the eighth. "All the guys were keyed up for this one."

Mantle Research Lab Dedicated In New York

NEW YORK (AP) — "I think this is the proudest moment of my life," Mickey Mantle said Tuesday.

The famed Yankee slugger's comment was not made after a home run or a game-winning hit. The setting was several miles from Yankee Stadium.

The place was the sixth floor of the new Dr. Harold R. Cronin Research Building at St. Vincent's Hospital.

The occasion was the dedication of the Mickey Mantle Research Laboratory for Hodgkins disease.

The laboratory is named after Mantle because he lent his name to a fund raising campaign for the establishment of the research center. Mantle's father died of the disease.

Those on hand for the ceremony included four other Yankees and doctors, nurses, and dozens of patients.

Pitcher-Coach Whitey Ford explained that the other Yankees couldn't come because they were resting for the big series with the Baltimore Orioles that started Tuesday night.

Mantle who usually prefers to listen rather than to talk, was not scheduled to speak.

But he asked for the microphone to thank the people gathered and said "I think this is the proudest moment of my life."

Rams Scout Named As Backfield Coach

ORANGE, Calif. (AP) — The Los Angeles Rams announced Tuesday the assignment of former Ram scout Vic Schwenk to the post of backfield coach.

Schwenk, former head coach at Occidental College in Los Angeles, succeeds Don Heinrich, who was fired last Saturday.

Phil Rodgers Loses Lead In French Golf

CHANTILLY, France (AP) — "It's a beautiful course," Phil Rodgers said after he dropped a 20-foot birdie putt on the 12th hole and went three under par on the second round of the French Open Golf Tourney.

Six holes later he was talking to himself.

"I never saw such a tough course," the La Jolla, Calif. pro muttered Tuesday on the 18th.

Tom Stepien was declared the runnerup in the Junior Golf Tourney sponsored by the East Liverpool Jaycees Monday.

hole of the 6,722-yard Chantilly Course, and lost his lead to Argentine veteran Roberto DeVicenzo.

DeVicenzo, who won the French Open in 1950 and 1960, shot a six-under 65 to break Rodgers' day-old course record and took a one-stroke lead into today's third round.

The Argentine had a 36-hole total of 134 while Rodgers, the chunky Californian who is not eligible for the PGA championship, had a 69 to go with his opening round 66 for a 135 and a tie for second with 21-year-old Cobie Lagrange of South Africa after two rounds.

Guy Wolstenholme of Britain and Ted Ball of Australia followed with 137s.

Rodgers appeared to be in command until he three-putted the 15th and finished the back nine with an even par.

Sanford May Not Return To Giants In '64 Season

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Burlly Jack Sanford, whose pitching was a prime factor in San Francisco's drive to the pennant in 1962, may not pitch another inning for the Giants this season.

The 35-year-old right-hander must undergo surgery on his pitching arm, the team announced Tuesday. The surgery will probably take place later this week.

Doctors said Sanford will be out of action at least six weeks. And they warned it could be longer.

The operation was ordered after examination showed Sanford is suffering from a six-inch obstruction that impairs circulation in the upper part of his pitching arm. Team physician, Dr. E.C. Sailer said the operation will not involve any muscle, bone or ligament.

Traded to the Giants in 1959, Sanford has won 85 and lost 62 in a San Francisco uniform. His over-all major league record is 115-83.

Sanford's biggest season was 1962, when he won 24 games and lost only 7 as the Giants took the pennant.

Wedgewood slammed a triple, double and single for Lawrenceville. Dave Cashdollar was the losing pitcher.

Cards Spill LA; Cincy Wins Pair

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ron Perranoski, the Dike-Pluggger of the Year in 1963, apparently has run out of fingers.

One victory shy of the 500 mark and one out from reaching it, the defending world champion Los Angeles Dodgers were beaten Tuesday night on a two-run pinch-hit single by Bob Skinner that capped a four-run ninth inning uprising and gave the St. Louis Cardinals an 8-7 victory.

And once again, Perranoski, who last year at this time was standing National League batters on their ears en route to a 16-3 record, wound up standing under the showers. The 27-year-old left-hander put down one uprising in the eighth, but failed in the decisive ninth.

Walks to Curt Flood and Dick Groat and a single by Ken Boyer gave the Cardinals a run and when Perranoski ran the count on Bill White to 3-0, out he came. Bob Miller completed the walk, Mike Shannon bounced out as a run scored and then Skinner slapped his game-winning hit.

The loss was charged to Perranoski, who has made 36 appearances this season and been in 24 losing games while compiling a 4-5 record with a mediocre 3.52 earned run average. Last year at this stage, he had made 34 appearances and been in 18 winning games with a 9-2 record and a brilliant 1.80 ERA.

The victory was the fifth straight for the Cardinals, who in five days have chopped 3 1/2 games off their deficit and climbed to within 7 1/2 games of front-running San Francisco in the tightening NL pennant struggle.

The Giants went down to an 8-7 defeat at Milwaukee as the Braves rode home runs by rookie Rico Carty and veteran Eddie Mathews to their 12th victory in the last 17 games. The Giants, however, retained their one game lead over Philadelphia, 4-3 losers at Pittsburgh.

Third-place Cincinnati closed to within 5 1/2 of the top by sweeping Houston 6-5 in 11 innings and 10-3 and Chicago Cubs defeated the New York Mets 4-2.

Sandy Koufax, seeking his 10th straight victory and 14th of the season, started for the Dodgers and batterymate John Roseboro helped build a 5-0 lead by driving in three runs with three singles.

But home runs by Shannon and White cut the deficit before the Cardinals struck for two runs in the eighth and chased Koufax as Manager Walt Alston waived in Perranoski to plug the dike.

Carty and Mathews slugged their homers in the sixth inning as the Braves bombarded 12-game winner Juan Marichal for five runs. After Mathews connected, Marichal made his second error of the game, walked two men and was tagged for a two-run single by Joe Torre that wrapped it up.

Mathews' homer, his 12th this season, was No. 434 of his career and broke a tie with the Giants' Willie Mays for eighth place on the alltime list.

Cal McLish, who had been on the disabled list, made his first start for the Phillies and failed to survive the first inning as Manny Mota smacked a single, Roberto Clemente doubled and Jerry Lynch singled.

Leading 2-0, the Pirates won it in the fifth by pushing across two more runs on an infield hit by Mota with the bases loaded and a grounder by Roberto Clemente that drove in winner Bob Veale.

The Reds scored three runs in the opener on wild pitches, two on consecutive heaves by Larry Yellen and the third in the 11th when Hal Woodeshick uncorked a wild one with the bases loaded that let in the deciding run.

The second game proved much easier against the Colts as the Reds slugged 16 hits, including homers by Frank Robinson and Mel Queen.

Dick Ellsworth won his 11th for the Cubs, despite a five-error third inning that enabled the Mets to score their only runs.

The Chicagoans pulled it out in the seventh with a three-run uprising on doubles by Dick Bertell and Andre Rodgers, Billy Cowan's triple and a single by Joey Amalfitano. Ernie Banks' homer accounted for the first Cub run.

49ers Regain Center Morze From Browns

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco 49ers announced Tuesday they have traded an undisclosed draft choice to the Cleveland Browns to regain center Frank Morze.

The 270-pound lineman left the 49ers in mid-1962 after being on the injured reserve list because of a knee injury. Technically he became a free agent during that time and decided to sign with the Browns. Reportedly he was angry because the 49ers demanded he stay below a stipulated weight, a condition termed the "fat man" clause.

Morze originally joined the 49ers in 1957.

Nicklaus Must Win PGA To Get In World Series

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Arnold Palmer wants to win. Jack Nicklaus must win. Tony Lema doesn't much care.

That's the story of the three favorites in the 46th PGA tournament which opens here Thursday over the Columbus Country Club course.

Add U.S. Open champ Ken Venturi, who says he is ready to climb off cloud nine and get back to work. Throw in Gary Player, who is putting again.

Remember Billy Casper, who has a cold—a dangerous sign. He plays best when he's hurting.

And that's the chalk talk for the tournament, last of the Big Four in golf. A winner from outside those six would come as a big surprise, although there are plenty in the field who could do it.

All the top pros are here for the annual family party, including such greats as Ben Hogan, Sam Snead, Vic Ghezzi and old Denny Shute, last man to win the PGA two years in a row. That was 1936-37.

Palmer wants this one badly. It is the only big one he has never won. He predicted it will take a score of 272, eight under par for the 34-36-70 course, which measures only 6,851 yards, short for these days.

Nicklaus, a Columbus boy who has not won a big one this year even though he is the leading money winner with some $81,000.

This is his last chance to get into the World Series of Golf, which he won the last two years. Palmer, the Masters winner; Lema and Venturi are already in.

Lema, who staved off a great challenge by Nicklaus in the British Open, said "I don't think I can get up for another big one so soon, but who knows? I'm in a trance. I don't practice. I just hit the ball. Everything I'm doing is right."

And Venturi, who took the Open to end three years of heartache and despair, said "I can't see anything but the flag. Somebody asked me why I keep shooting at the flag. I told him, 'That's where the holes are.'"

McCauley And Wilson Hurl Low-Hit Games At Chester

Chink McCauley hurled a 3-hitter to give Midland USW its 15th straight victory in the Chester City Softball League while Chester VFW defeated Local 647, 10-0 on a two-hit masterpiece by H. Wilson.

Midland topped the Chester Merchants, 5-0, as McCauley and Jim Cerasi homered for the league leaders. K. Talbott was the loser.

Backing Wilson's neat two-hit job for Chester VFW were Campbell, Reed and Torrence with two hits each. One of Reed's safeties went for a triple.

Rogers Drive In Captures 4th Division Title In Row

Rogers Drive-In won its fourth straight American Division championship in the Minor League by taking two straight from Potters Bank & Trust in the second playoff game Tuesday.

Rogers piled up a 22-10 victory to cap the title.

An 11-run third inning was enough to carry the Rogers nine to the crown.

Don Plant was the winning pitcher scattering six hits and also was the top hitter for Rogers with four singles. R. Rob-

Four Browns Injured In Training Session

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — Four men have been injured in the first two days of the Cleveland Browns' early training session for rookies and passers.

Tom Goosby, who injured his left knee last year, re-injured it Tuesday. Walter Beach, a defensive back, pulled a thigh muscle, and tackle Bill Slacas suffered a sprained ankle.

Monday, the opening day, quarterback Frank Ryan suffered a pulled thigh muscle that will keep him out of action the rest of the week.

Goosby, discouraged, said he had worked out with weights over the winter to strengthen the knee. "Then this happens on the second day of camp."

Former tennis champion Ellsworth Vines recently tied for ninth place in the Long Island Open golf championship with rounds of 76, 73, 73.

Errors Help Central Nine To 1-0 Win

Len Walker pitched a one-hitter but he also committed two costly errors which helped Central Service to a 1-0 victory over his Dentist squad Tuesday in the Colt League.

Reds' Johnson Streak Hitter Everyone Wants

CINCINNATI (AP)—For an admitted streak hitter, the Cincinnati Reds' Deron Johnson is mighty consistent with the bat.

The husky first baseman is the club's only .300 batter, he hits the long ball and is nifty on the defense.

Johnson, indeed, is the kind of streak hitter every other major league club would like to have.

The records show that he went hitless in two consecutive games only six times to date, and only once failed to get a hit for three games in a row.

The 6-foot-2, 200-pound right-hander slugger currently is batting .319, has driven in 35 runs, hit nine homers and 13 doubles.

"I have been meeting the ball pretty well and it has been falling safely," the soft-spoken Johnson said Wednesday.

"I also am doing my best to keep from striking out."

Johnson, who will be 26 Friday, is like all long-ball hitters. He strikes out frequently.

In April he batted .310; in May, .308; in June, .281, and so far this month .391.

Johnson wrested the first base job from Gordy Coleman last month.

At the start of the season, Manager Fred Hutchinson used Coleman on first against right-handed pitchers and Johnson against left-handers.

After five years in the minors, Johnson went to the New York Yankees late in the 1960 season. He was traded to Kansas City early in the 1961 season and batted .209 that year in 96 games with both clubs.

It was Johnson's great season last year with San Diego of the Pacific Coast League that caused the Reds to buy his contract. He led the league in home runs —33— and drove in 91 runs on 131 hits.

Not only that, but he proved his versatility by playing 89 games in the outfield, 26 at first base, three at second base and 16 at third base.

Burbick's Clinch 2nd Half Championship In Pony Loop

Burbick's clinched the championship in the second half of the Pony League winning its ninth game in 10 outings with a 6-2 victory over Woodbine Tuesday.

A three-run third inning proved the difference for Burbick's which now meets Litten's.

Budge Leads 5 Players To Hall Of Fame

NEW YORK (AP) — Don Budge, for almost a quarter of a century the only man to complete amateur tennis' Grand Slam, heads a list of five players and an administrator who are the latest additions to the National Lawn Tennis Hall of Fame.

Budge, along with Alice Marble, George M. Lott, Sidney B. Wood and Frank Shields — all top players from the 1930s — and George Townsend Adee, president of the USLTA from 1916 through 1919, will be inducted into the hall during the week of the Newport Invitational Aug. 10-16.

Budge, who swept the world's four major singles titles, Wimbledon, Forest Hills and the French and Australian championships, and the others were elected Tuesday.

Budge's sweep in 1938 stood alone as one of the great achievements of the sport until it was duplicated by Australia's Rod Laver in 1962.

McKinley Wins First Round Tests

RIVER FOREST, Ill. (AP) — America's defending Davis Cup squad competing in the 54th annual National Clay Court Tennis Championships has been given the word from its 1963 captain, Bob Kelleher—"Don't go through the paces of just competing."

The word, so far, has been driven home.

Five members of that 1963 squad have successfully passed their first two tests.

Leading the pack is tough Chuck McKinley, a 22-year-old belter, who likes to "leave 'em laughing."

The rock 'em, sock 'em type player won his opening matches Tuesday. First he eliminated Frank LaMothe of New Orleans, 6-4, 6-4.

Chuck retired to write letters for an hour then ousted Germany's Horst Ritter, 6-2, 6-4.

McKinley, of San Antonio, Tex., set such a good example, his Davis Cup teammates, Dennis Ralston, Frank Froehling, Marty Riessen and Arthur Ashe won seven matches among them.

The eight survivors in the women's ranks get Wednesday off. They'll enter quarter-final action Thursday.

Heading the list of hopefuls will be 15-year-old Peaches Bartkowicz, who won the first set 6-3 and was leading 2-1 in set No. two when Gwyneth Thomas of Cleveland was urged to the sidelines on a physicians' advice.

Horse And Auto Work Together At Meadows

WASHINGTON — One area in which the harness horse and the automobile live side-by-side with little or no competition, is the nightly use of the starting gate at The Meadows at the beginning of each race.

Years ago in Henry Ford's day, the thought that the motive device known as the "Tin Lizzie" would eventually replace tion of horses that make up the exciting sport of harness racing.

The first Starting Gate was invented and designed by Steve G. Phillips of Xenia, Ohio. In July of 1937, his device was successfully used at North Randall Park, in Cleveland, Ohio.

Since that time, the gate has been improved in many ways and has kept pace with the increasing interest in the growing harness sport.

At The Meadows, John C. Dale, the starting judge has the responsibility of operating the gate. This is a model that has been revised and equipped by John and his son Bob to improve on the earlier gate of Phillips.

Driving the car nightly is Dave Hall, of Chicago, Ill. Dave was a former chauffeur for the United States government. There is the delicate touch needed on brake or gas of the big automobile to maintain the proper position for a good start, and to speed away at the proper time.

No, the automobile has not replaced the horse at The Meadows, instead, the auto and the horse are working side by side to bring pleasure nightly to thousands of area fans.

How Can I? By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. What is a good tip for the touching-up of interior paint jobs?

A. Whenever you do any painting inside the house, fill an empty fingernail polish bottle with some of the leftover paint. The small brush in this bottle is just right for touching up the chips and scratches that almost inevitably make their appearance on walls and woodwork, and the paint of course matches perfectly.

Q. How can I make a substitute for whipped cream?

A. Grate one apple, add two or three tablespoons of sugar and one egg white, then beat until light.

Q. How can I prevent spots from forming on fabrics when removing stains from them?

A. By placing a felt-covered furniture floor cup under the spot while applying your cleaning fluid. This, in addition to preventing a ring from forming, also aids in preventing the fabric from slipping about while you are rubbing the spot.

East End Post Awaits Outing

American Legion Post 374 of East End is continuing plans for the annual picnic Sunday, Aug. 9, at Valley Park.

James Cregar, commander, and Vincent McGeehan of the entertainment committee reported on plans at the post's meeting Monday night. Prizes have been planned for various events for both adults and children, they said. Roast pig will furnish the main course for the meal.

Other members of the committee are Robert Nutter, George Hughes, John Fone, Paul Beck and John Long.

The trustees noted that the Legion property had been surveyed and that an architect's plan is expected to help the post with plans for future expansion and remodeling.

James Wallover, service officer, reported that Vince Ferlaino has entered the hospital and that Louis Krawiec has been released.

John Fone was reported as having the highest bowling score for the week. Chester Ice was appointed as new custodian of the legion property.

Members were reminded of the dance to be held at the post Saturday night. Music will be provided by the Tempos. Sandwiches will be served.

Forty-two were present. Cregar presided. Next regular meeting will be Monday night.

GI Ends Training

SALINEVILLE — Pvt. Lewis H. Buxton, son of Mrs. Martha E. Buxton of R. D. 2, has completed advanced training as a cannoneer at the Army Artillery and Missile Center at Ft. Sill, Okla. Buxton, 22, entered the Army in February and trained at Ft. Knox, Ky.

Fall Injures City Man, 51

A 51-year-old city man was in "fair" condition today at City Hospital with injuries suffered early this morning in a fall of over 12 feet into an excavation on Jackson St.

Harold Fiber, 203½ Rural Ln., received a possible back injury and abrasions of the right arm in the fall at the barricaded excavation at Rural Ln. and Jackson St. where an old brick home is being razed.

He apparently fell onto bricks and chunks of concrete and wood at the bottom of the hole.

Fiber was helped out of the hole by police and taken to the hospital in a cruiser.

Fiber told Patrolmen H. W. Bosworth and Howard Frontz that he became dizzy and tumbled into the excavation about 1:15 while walking through Rural Ln. en route to his home. The incident was reported to headquarters by Josephine Baine, 622 Jackson St., and Officers Bosworth and Frontz were sent to investigate.

The site is barricaded by siding removed from the old building, but the only illumination is from a street light at the corner, police said.

Recording Presented At Meeting Of Rotary

A recorded address by Charles Pettengill, international president of the club, was played at the Rotary Club's luncheon meeting Tuesday noon at the Travelers Hotel.

Arthur Doak acted as program chairman in place of Don Schreckengost, who was called out of town on business. Forty-six attended. A brief songfest followed, directed by Jackman Vodrey, Leland Pittenger, Frank Richmond and the Rev. Russell Mase.

Alvin T. Babb, president, announced that Atty. Bryce Kendall of Salem is the new Rotary district governor. Kendall will address the club Sept. 1. A guest was Bob Fithian, Youngstown Rotarian.

Fete Marks Birthday For Boy At Pughtown

Mr. and Mrs. Burr Fink of Pughtown entertained with a party Monday night in honor of the 8th birthday anniversary of their grandson, Burr Allison, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Allison.

The honored guest, who resides with his grandparents, received gifts.

Refreshments were served to 40. Guests were from New Cumberland, Chester and Weirton.

Weed, Grass Cutting Asked

Appealing for more civic pride to improve the appearance of some residential areas, Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey has asked property owners to trim weeds and high grass on sidewalks and curbs.

Some householders have trimmed the weeds and grass growing through bricks but many have neglected the work, the director said, pointing out trimming removes an eyesore and improves the appearance of neighborhoods.

A quick tour Tuesday showed high weeds and grass on both sides of lower St. Clair Ave. north to Morton St. and similar conditions on Lincoln Ave. and W. 4th St., the director said. Many weeds were at least knee high.

At present, there is no city regulation covering the sidewalk growth, but the director asked Council several weeks ago to draft an ordinance.

Council and the director last week urged owners of vacant lots to have weeds cut.

If property owners refuse, the city can have the work done and bill the owners on the tax duplicate, officials warned.

The Osprey is one of the few birds that occupy the same nests year in and year out.

Lack Of Quorum

Ohio Board Fails To Act On Bus Purchasing Plan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — After two days of talking, the Ohio Board of Education was unable to take any action on a plan to centralize school bus purchases because of lack of a quorum.

As a resolution recommending adoption of the regulation was being read Tuesday, Robert A. Manchester of Canfield, a critic of the purchase plan, slipped out of the room. His departure left only 14 members of the 23-member board present, one less than the number required for business.

As a result the board was forced to adjourn, leaving until its Sept. 14 meeting action on the controversial plan. There was seven hours of testimony Monday and much of Tuesday's session was devoted to the plan. This was the first two-day meeting the board has held in four years.

The much-debated plan would set a single low bid for purchase of school buses with state funds. Under the present system, school districts eligible to receive funds from the state are governed by a ceiling price established by the Ohio Department of Education.

With the failure to act on the plan, the board authorized State Supt. E. E. Holt to continue to process school bus requests on an emergency basis, as was done during the last school year. In other matters, several school district transfers were taken up by the board.

Denied was a request by Otto Kohn to transfer his 93-acre farm from Clyde exempted village school district to Sandusky County schools.

Tabled until the next meeting was proposed transfer to Mansfield city school district of 123.7 acres from Lexington local school district, Richland County.

Approved was transfer of 45 acres from Fairfield local school district, Butler County, to Hamilton city schools.

The board approved creation of two new school districts in Hardin and Tuscarawas counties. Created from Uhrichsville, Dennison and Union local school districts will be a new city school district in Tuscarawas County.

The new local school district in Hardin County will be made up of the former Ada exempted village, McGuffey - McDonald and Alger local school districts. The board reaffirmed its intention to revoke the charters of McGuffey-McDonald and Alger high schools, effective June 30, 1965.

Other high schools which received notice from the board that their charters would be revoked June 30, 1965, were Franklin Township High School in Adams County and Hiram High School in Portage County. Among other action, the board:

—Appointed to the Vocational Education Advisory Committee James P. Griffin, Youngstown, to succeed Al Bilik, Cincinnati, who resigned.

—Approved allocation of $874,354 to Brunswick local school district, Medina County, from funds appropriated under the $250 million state bond issue.

—Approved submission to voters by five school districts of bond issues which would exceed 6 per cent of the districts' assessed tax valuation. The districts: Sandy Valley, Stark County; Scioto-Darby, Franklin County; Goshen, Clermont County; Hillsboro city and Huron city.

Election Board Will Seek Printers' Bids On Ballots

The County Election Board will mail letters to printers Monday asking for bids on ballots to be used at the Nov. 3 general election.

Bids will be received until 2 p. m. Aug. 10, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, said.

The deadline for bond issues and most tax levies is Aug. 5 at 4 p. m., O'Hanlon said, explaining that subdivisions planning bond issues will have to act quickly in order to comply with the time limits provided by law.

The board must have ballots for military personnel and civilians residing outside the United States available by Sept. 4. Ballots for civilian absentees and disabled voters will not be issued until Oct. 4.

Along with the presidential ballot and office-type ballot for county offices, the board is anticipating 18 special questions and issues, O'Hanlon said, noting that only four have been filed so far.

City Council is expected to file a resolution seeking renewal of a three-quarter-mill levy for City Hospital and also is considering submission of a resolution asking voters to approve establishment of a Board of Park Commissioners.

In response to a question from Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper, O'Hanlon said the board has held the proposition should be submitted 90 days before the election.

Cooper asked the opinion since the law authorizes a vote on the question but does not spell out how far in advance of the election the resolution must be filed, O'Hanlon explained.

Columbiana County commissioners also are considering submitting a one-tenth mill levy for mental health.

The Salem Board of Education is considering four propositions, including a bond issue for an addition to the new high school, renewal of an existing levy and possibly two new operating levies, O'Hanlon said.

The Fairfield - Waterford School District is discussing a proposed bond issue. United Local School District filed a resolution Monday asking a vote on a $630,000 bond issue for an addition to the high school, alteration of existing facilities and construction of an addition to house school buses.

If the East Liverpool Board of Education Monday night approves, as expected, a resolution placing a $3,334,000 bond issue for a building program on the ballot at a special election in September, it will complicate the election staff's work, O'Hanlon said.

He said the board would have to seek bids on the ballots for special election as well as on poll books for the 43 precincts in the school district. Poll books for the general election were purchased early this year when the election board awarded a contract covering both the May primaries and the general election.

Ohio Power Asks New Rate Slash For Some Users

CANTON — The Ohio Power Co. today filed an application with the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio at Columbus seeking further rate reductions amounting to $242,000 annually.

A. N. Prentice of Canton, vice president and general manager of the company, said those benefiting from the reductions would be large users of electricity among residential customers, including some customers who reside in total - electric homes, and all public, private and parochial schools which use electric heating.

The new reductions, coupled with rate reductions the company placed in effect in 1961 and 1963, amounting to $275,000, would result in total savings to customers exceeding $500,000 annually.

One of the new reductions would apply to residential customers who do not reside in total - electric homes. In these cases, for all home usage between 800 and 3,000 kilowatt-hours per month, the rate would be reduced from the present 1.5 cents per kwh to 1.2 cents per kwh. For all residential electric usage over 3,000 kwh per month, the rate would drop to 1 cent per kwh.

In its new application, Ohio Power seeks to bill its total - electric home customers at a rate of 1 cent per kwh for all electricity over 3,000 kwh used per month, compared to the present rate of 1.2 cents for all kwh over 1,200 per month. This would affect approximately 3,270 of its 11,000 total - electric customers and mean a total savings to them of $30,000 per year.

The application also would extend a reduced electric rate to schools using electric heating, which would bring about a savings of approximately $22,000 annually to 26 schools.

Cleveland Vote Investigation To Be Continued

CLEVELAND (AP) — Secretary of State Ted W. Brown says his examiners, who reported finding 50 probable voting irregularities in five East Side wards, will continue their investigation the rest of the week.

Brown said Tuesday that ward-hopping and use of Democrats as Republican booth officials were among irregularities uncovered.

Ward-hopping, Brown noted, "is done in large communities such as Cuyahoga County, and voters, in many cases, are unaware of any violation of election laws." These are voters who live in one community but vote in another.

The investigation was prompted by disclosure that 10 persons voting in Ward 16 were registered at the address where Councilman Jack P. Russell has his home and office.

$300,000 Grant Set For Building Of Camp

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Halle Memorial Fund of the Cleveland Foundation has provided a $300,000 grant for construction of a 325-acre camp and recreation area northeast of Burton in Geauga County.

The camp site initially will accommodate three activities—a resident camp for children (Camp Wise), a day camp and a gold age camp. Camp Wise now is located in Painesville Twp., but must vacate that site after the 1965 season.

Detectives Identify Woman Stab Victim

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Homicide detectives report they have learned the identity of a woman found stabbed to death early Monday in the apartment of an East Side man they have charged with murder.

Police say the victim was Mrs. Margaret Green, 54, of Columbus, whose husband told officers he hadn't seen her in several weeks.

Jessie Wallace Lovingood, the man charged, claims he did not know the victim and had never seen her before she stumbled into his apartment only partly clad, stabbed and moaning for help. He summoned police.

He was charged after witnesses told police they saw Lovingood and the woman together about four hours before the body was found.

Pneumatic tires were invented by John B. Dunlop.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR HELOISE: I have found a new way to use those lovely hand lotion dispensers when they are empty.

Just remove the top of the bottle and put it on a bottle of liquid dish detergent! Some types screw on, but it will push on most bottles.

Then when you need a squirt of detergent, the pusher is always handy and gives you the exact amount for a whole sinkful of dishes!

DISHWASHER.

By golly, it works on most bottles of detergents. What a keen idea.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I use this method when defrosting my older-type refrigerator:

I remove the ice trays, put foil around them to insulate and prevent dripping, and place the trays on the lowest shelf of my oven. Then I stack the meat place milk bottles, etc., around this or on another shelf, cover with a terry towel and close the oven door.

I then clean the refrigerator and replace the food, which is still cold or frozen. Neat, eh?

P. A. T.

LETTER OF TRUTH

DEAR HELOISE: If you want to carry ice cube trays or shallow pans with water — or any liquid — without spilling...

Just hum a waltz to yourself and stride along. You won't spill a drop. Try it.

G. CLEMMANA.

DEAR HELOISE: For those of you who write poorly...

try holding your pencil or fountain pen back from the point about one and one-half inches, or two, and see how much better you write!

Instead of those horrible, illegible scribbles and scrawls, you will find an 80 per cent improvement.

PENMANSHIP TEACHER.

True, try it! You'll be amazed.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: It is nice to find that there are still things one can learn through your column after 36 years of housekeeping and raising a family.

For those who like ironed sheets but do not like the big job of ironing, fold your sheet and just iron the hems first...

and then spread the sheet out on the ironing board and iron the rest of your flat work on this sheet!

Shift the sheet as you finish each piece you are ironing and you will have nicely ironed sheets with little effort.

LAURA TOONE.

DEAR HELOISE: For mothers with wee little ones...

I kept forgetting to buy a bottle brush. Today I was desperate so I rolled up a long sponge and wrapped it tightly with your wonderful nylon net. Then I sewed the net to the sponge, inserting a wire for a handle...

The sponge does its job while the net actually scratches loose the residue from the inside of the bottle.

Judge's Action Hits Ohio's New Junkyard Law

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A temporary restraining order has been granted by a common pleas court judge against enforcement of Ohio's new junkyard law in Washington County.

The law went into effect Jan. 1. It says among other things that a junkyard, to be licensed, must be obscured from general view by natural objects or a fence.

The restraining order, granted by Judge Leonard B. Ogle after a hearing Tuesday, stems from the first suit to challenge the law. Walter Lane and Oran Baker, who operate Hilltop Auto Wrecking south of Marietta on Ohio 7, are making the challenge, represented by Cleveland attorney Milton H. Wyner.

Wyner, counsel for the Ohio Auto and Truck Wrecking Association, contends the law is unconstitutional. It is based solely on aesthetic conditions and does not involve public health, safety, morals or welfare, he says.

And, says the attorney, the 1963 legislature discriminated against junkyards in passing it.

There are indications other suits may be filed soon in Warren, Mansfield and Lorain.

The first hymn book in the U.S. was written by Charles Wesley in 1737.

Lisbon Board Eyes Levy To Clear Deficit

LISBON — The Village Board of Education Tuesday night approved a 1965 budget of $541,963 — $26,663 more than anticipated receipts of $515,320 — and then agreed to place a 4-mill operating levy on the ballot at the November general election to help overcome the deficit.

A breakdown of receipts showed the board expects $194,240 from real estate taxes, $44,310 from personal property taxes, $273,770 from the state foundation fund, $500 in state reimbursements and $2,500 from miscellaneous sources.

Expenditures will be: Administration, $34,840; instruction, $354,098; coordinating salaries, $9,200; library, $6,850; buses, $19,600; operations, $60,190; maintenance, $4,075, and auxiliary expenses, $53,130.

The board estimated its finances will be in the red by $43,455 at the end of 1964. By 1965, the deficit is expected to hit $70,218 if new sources of income are not found in the meantime.

In deciding to place the levy on the ballot, the board pointed out it will be the third time voters have been asked to provide additional operating expenses. The 4-mill levy would raise approximately $48,000.

In other business, Charles Powell of Lisbon R. D. 5, who has been a seventh and eighth grade teacher for six years at Lincoln School, was named principal of the building at a salary of $6,657 to succeed John (Jack) Lewis, who resigned to go to Talmadge.

The board also hired Mrs. Mary Horner of West Point as an elementary teacher. She formerly taught in the Beaver Local system and is completing degree work this summer at Youngstown university.

Miss Linda C. Kent of East Palestine also was hired as an elementary teacher. She has a cadet teaching certificate from Youngstown University.

Resignations were accepted from Lewis, Cristina Zipperian of Poland, who taught second grade at McKinley, and Howard Johnson of Boardman, who will go to the Youngstown school system.

Two text books were adopted. They include Modern Algebra I and Modern Algebra II, both published by Houghton - Mifflin.

The board approved application for reimbursement for Title III funds from the state in the amount of $1,944.16.

The board also discussed teaching needs. At present, requirements are for industrial arts, mathematics, social studies and first and second grade teachers.

Supt. Oliver Payne presented letters from the Lisbon Ministerial Association and St. George's Catholic Church, asking use of school buildings for religious meetings. Both letters were read to the board by Dr. Wade Bacon, president.

Payne discussed the summer work program in the schools. He reported that Dr. Bacon has donated two recorders and a transcriber to the David Anderson High School to be used in the commercial department. He also discussed difficulty in securing teachers for the new term.

Bills of $37,872.65 were ordered paid, including $33,098.22 for payrolls and $4,774.43 for supplies.

Cross-Continent Athlete Dashes Through District

A real cross-country runner — a youthful South African intent on being the first person ever to jog across the U. S. from coast-to-coast — passed through the East Liverpool district today on the homestretch toward his goal.

Don Shepherd of Johannesburg left Los Angeles on May 12, intending to wind up his record-breaking pedestrian effort in New York City.

Sun-tanned and wearing a track suit and white canvas shoes and carrying a small pack on his back, he talked to reporters briefly early Tuesday afternoon when he halted at a Lisbon drug store for a cup of tea.

Shepherd said he runs 9 to 13 hours a day. He said his trip will set a record because no other person ever has run across the U. S. from coast-to-coast. He said he is "not sponsored by anything or anybody."

A reporter who talked with the athlete yesterday at Lisbon jogged along with him from the Canton Bridge at the west end of the village until Shepherd halted at a drugstore in the county seat.

Minister Urges Chester's Action On Improvement

The need for improvements to the physical appearance of Chester was outlined by the Rev. H. K. Schondelmayer of Warren, Ind., at a meeting of the Chester Kiwanis Club Tuesday night at the City Hall.

Rev. Schondelmayer, father of the Rev. Robert Schondelmayer, pastor of the Chester First Christian Church, has served Churches of Christ and Christian Churches for 53 years.

He spoke on his first impressions of Chester, and declared "the heart of Chester is sound, but the city needs to devote a great deal of attention to making its face match its heart."

He urged the club members to follow the Kiwanis motto, "We Build," in helping improve the city. He also recommended the club support the current communitywide cleanup campaign.

Twenty-one attended. Dr. Howard Matthew announced a golf tournament for members Aug. 1 at Pleasant Hills Golf Course.

$1 Million Expansion Slated By Goodyear

ST. MARYS, Ohio (AP) — Work began here today to make the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co.'s largest plant even larger. The $1 million expansion is expected to be completed by Jan. 1, 1965.

The go-ahead on construction by the Frank Stedke Co. of Lima came after civic groups raised $23,000 to pay persons who said their business properties would be damaged by the closing of a street to link the old and new plants. The civic organizations decided to raise the money rather than await what might have been lengthy court litigation.

LISBON — Columbiana County will receive $7,481 in state funds as reimbursement for expenses in May, Auditor Roger W. Tracy said today at Columbus. Under-River Gas Main Job Nears Completion

The Manufacturers Light & Heat Co. expects to complete work this week on a $106,000 project for installation of a new 12-inch pipe line under the Ohio River, providing a new service link between East Liverpool and Chester.

Looking over the job from the Chester side are T. E. Ridge of Chester, left, division superintendent for Manufacturers, and W. D. Burdett of Claysville, the utility's superintendent of pipeline construction. The half-mile main will tie in with lines of the Ohio Valley Gas Co. on the East Liverpool side.

The new line will replace two smaller lines, Ridge said. "Much of the main being replaced is wrought iron screw pipe, some of which was installed as early as 1886," he explained.

Although the wrought iron pipe no longer will carry gas, it still will serve a useful purpose. The old lines are being left in place to be used as a ground bed to protect the new pipe from corrosion, Ridge said.

Hahn Contracting Co. of Birdsboro, Pa., and the Monongahela and Ohio Dredging Co. of Pittsburgh have the sub-contracts for laying the new line.

Ridge said Manufacturers will start construction, probably in August, on a pipeline leading to the river crossing line. Estimated to cost $198,000, the job will consist of laying 3 1/2 miles of 12-inch pipe from Route 2 to Chester.

"In the last 10 years, Manufacturers has spent approximately $600,000 building new pipelines to carry more gas to East Liverpool," Ridge said.

Ohio Edison Contract Covers Toronto Plant

A contract signed Monday night by the Ohio Edison Co. at Akron and the United Utility Workers of America affects 1,475 employees of five of the utility's plants, including those at Toronto.

The two-year pact, retroactive to July 1, still is subject to ratification by the union members. It calls for wage increases ranging from 7 to 12 cents an hour in each of the two years, improvements in vacation benefits and changes in working conditions.

U.S. Protests Slap Of Officer By Border Guard

BERLIN (AP)—The U.S. Army says it has lodged a "strong protest" with Soviet authorities over the slapping of an American officer by an East German border guard.

The officer, who was not identified, followed standing instructions and did not retaliate, an Army spokesman said.

The apparently unprovoked incident Sunday outraged American officers in West Berlin.

The Army spokesman said the officer was riding in an Army sedan in East Berlin when an East German border patrol halted him near Checkpoint Charlie.

The patrol told the American and his companions to leave the area. The officer protested that they were not in a restricted area and had not violated any traffic rules. One of the East Germans reached his hand through the car window and struck the officer.

Auto Ditches, Hurts Woman

An elderly woman was injured Tuesday when the car in which she was a passenger veered into a ditch along the Y. & O. Rd., the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

Mrs. Hannah Unger, 74, of Route 30 near Lisbon was treated at City Hospital for a possible fracture of the nose and a hip bruise.

She was a passenger in a car driven by Ethel Miller, 69, of near Lisbon, formerly of Lincoln Ave., who lost control on a curve about three miles south of Rock Camp.

The 1957 sedan went off the right side of the road and into a ditch, causing extensive damage to the car. Mrs. Unger was thrown against a seat.

Officers cited the driver for speed in excess of road conditions. The mishap was timed at 3:50 p. m.

Avenue Of Escape From Cuba Sealed Up

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—One of the last avenues of escape from Communist Cuba—fishing boats—may be sealed off by a new regulation requiring guards to accompany fishermen, a newly arrived exile said today.

The refugee, Gilberto Hernandez, 23, said he and seven companions fled in a fishing boat shortly before the decree became effective.

Daugherty Talks For Wellsville's Kiwanis Session

Mayor William Daugherty spoke on possible effects from various projects proposed for the community at a meeting of the Wellsville Kiwanis Club.

Discussing the proposed Highlandtown Lake, he said it will alleviate the fear of another serious water shortage for the community.

He also discussed the possible annexation of outlying areas such as Russell Heights and Hillcrest. He said the immediate financial effect would not be profitable to the city, although it would be beneficial over a long period of time if the areas continue to grow. He outlined the procedures for extending the city limits.

The mayor reviewed the proposed relocation of Route 7 through the city. Daugherty said his principal concern is the loss of residents as consumers. The tax loss will be felt, but will not be insurmountable, he commented.

Eighteen attended. William Miller of Columbiana, district lieutenant governor, was a guest. George Wilson, president, presided. He has just returned from the national Kiwanis convention at Los Angeles.

Johnny Carson Goes West

LAS VEGAS, NEV. (sometimes referred to as the tin can mayor) flew in for the same time as Sen. Barry Goldwater last week, and although Johnny didn't make it to the GOP convention, he certainly can claim as many fervent delegates as the senator.

Twice a night the Congo room of the Sahara Hotel in Las Vegas is jammed with Carson's faithful followers, laughing at his jokes and submitting questions to him on cards distributed for that purpose.

THE QUESTIONS get very personal. Is his wife with him? What does she think about his working with all those beautiful show girls? And so on.

Carson's fans seem to take a more proprietary attitude toward their hero than normally.

Since all major networks are devoting most of their program time during the next few days to the Republican National Convention at San Francisco, The Review has suspended publication of the TV log during the period because of its repetitious nature.

The regular TV listings will be resumed at the conclusion of the convention.

is found between fans and TV stars, probably because most of them view his "Tonight" show from their beds.

After all, a fellow looking at you in bed five nights a week can't very well get up when you ask him about his personal life, can he?

Carson doesn't. He is remarkably patient, and even offstage he'll put up with some pretty boorish questions from some pretty boorish people. He draws the line, however, when they call him long-distance collect.

"I WOULDN'T take a collect call from New York even from my mother," he told a telephone operator who rang him the other afternoon with some note on the line whom Carson never has heard of. He averages two or three such calls a day.

These four weeks away from the "Tonight" show are supposed to be his vacation. When Jack Paar had this chore he used to vacation every four weeks and still cry that he was being persecuted.

"I guess it's just the old ego," says Carson, trying to explain why he is working on his vacation. "Las Vegas is one of the few top night club spots in the world, and it's flattering to be able to play here."

HE ALSO might have added the remunerative. An average middle-class family of four could live comfortably seven or eight years on what Carson will gross here in four weeks.

The Sahara Hotel is advertising this as Carson's "major night club debut." Actually he played a few clubs more than a decade ago in Southern California, but he doesn't count that.

"I think one of them was in Bakersfield, and if I remember right the manager was an alligator," says Carson.

He had a little trouble acclimating himself at first to the discipline required. Carson's hour-and-45 minute TV show can drag and is quite casual. After his first performance here, he had to cut his routine by 20 minutes.

SOME OF HIS biggest laughs are generated by panning the commercials on TV and telling how relieved he is at not having to "reach down and pick up a can of something every three minutes."

Los Angeles Mayor Sam Yorty

Man Falls To Death At Demonstration

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. — An employee of the Brooke County Health Department fell to his death here Tuesday while conducting a demonstration before a group of state civil defense instructors.

Witnesses said Robert L. Rees, about 32, of Follansbee, fell 18 feet from a fire testing tower at the state fire training center. He suffered severe head injuries.

Rees was demonstrating a rope slide with the aid of a special type belt when he lost control and fell.

The victim was a volunteer fireman at Follansbee and reportedly had been attending such courses throughout northern West Virginia for a number of years.

He was employed as a laboratory technician by the Brooke County Health Department.

Plan To Seek Referendum

Akron Fair Housing Foes To Act Against Ordinance

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Opponents of Akron's new fair housing ordinance are expected to seek a referendum in the November elections in an effort to wipe out the ordinance.

Mayor Edward O. Erickson signed the ordinance shortly after it was passed by an 11-2 Council vote Tuesday, but he indicated he thought the measure would not survive a referendum.

The Akron Board of Realtors, meeting to discuss the situation while Council was acting on the legislation, introduced four months ago by Edward J. Davis, Democrat, Akron's only Negro councilman.

Monday the realtors took a full-page ad in the Akron Beacon Journal, stating their belief that the matter should properly be decided by a vote of the people.

The ad said councilmen were being "threatened and pressured to pass a forced housing ordinance now" and called on residents to contact their councilmen to make their views known.

Councilman Harold Neiman, who opposed the measure, had planned to offer a watered-down version, but dropped the plan for lack of support. Some 100 of the toughest such acts in any civil rights workers had threatened a sit-in demonstration if a substitute ordinance were offered.

Akron is the third Ohio city to adopt a fair housing ordinance. The other two ordinances, at Toledo and Oberlin, are being tested in the courts. The Toledo ordinance has been ruled unconstitutional, while the Oberlin ordinance was upheld. The Ohio Supreme Court will resolve the apparent conflict.

Davis said the Toledo ordinance lost its lower court test because it excluded owners of rental property with four units or less. The court held that the legislators had been arbitrary in selecting the number four as the cutoff.

He said this was avoided in Akron's ordinance, which exempts rental apartments and rooms at any property in which the owner lives.

Aside from this and one other, minor exception, intended to cover transactions among members of one family, the law prohibits restrictions in sale or rental of property on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin or ancestry.

Proponents have called it one of the toughest such acts in any city in the country.

Ohio Turnpike Commission Notes Traffic Death Increase

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A four overnight parking facilities for travel trailers have brought an enthusiastic response since June, Research Director James D. Hartsborne reported.

There has been an ominous increase in fatal accidents on the 241-mile east-west toll road.

Discussion of the death rate was the only pessimistic note in Tuesday's commission meeting, the last until Sept. 8. Chairman James W. Shocknessy was pulling his wagon to the grocery store on an errand for his mother in Strongsville when the death toll for all of 1963, a tractor-trailer rig, speeded across Royalton Road, hit the concern with the news that there have been two more turnpike traffic deaths since the first of this month.

Boy Pulling Wagon Is Killed By Truck

CLEVELAND (AP)—Eight-year-old Charles R. Goddard was pulling his wagon to the grocery store on an errand for his mother in Strongsville when the death toll for all of 1963, a tractor-trailer rig, speeded across Royalton Road, hit the concern with the news that there have been two more turnpike traffic deaths since the first of this month.

"The answer I do not know," he said, citing engineering factors of the road and other safety precautions taken. "Human beings have to do something about protecting themselves."

Shocknessy and State Highway Director P. E. Mashette generally were jubilant about settlement of a heavy construction equipment operators' strike. Each played a part in avoiding a major highway construction tie-up.

Commission Vice Chairman O. L. Teagarden of Oak Harbor reported sales of $91,538 at turnpike restaurants in the past month, up $41,971 over a year ago.

Bullet Ruled Fatal

CLEVELAND (AP)—A bullet in the temple killed a 36-year-old East Side man whose body was found in a suburban Beachwood field, says Coroner Samuel R. Gerber. The body of Arville G. Moore, a former parking lot attendant, was found by two boys Monday night, up $41,971 over a year ago.

37 County Scouts To Leave For Jamboree On Thursday

Thirty-seven youths representing the Columbiana Boy Scout Council will have breakfast Thursday at 5 a. m. at Camp McKinley Reservation, near Lisbon, then board a special bus for the National Boy Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge, Pa. Bennett Taylor, council executive, will prepare the boys' meal before they shove off for the event that opens officially Friday at Valley Forge State Park. They will be among 50,000 Scouts from all parts of the U. S. and Canada.

The delegation is scheduled to return July 25. The boys will camp in the fields where George Washington's troops spent the winter of 1777-1778. About 24,000 Scouts were to arrive at the Jamboree site today, with 23,000 expected tomorrow.

Boys at the Jamboree will live in 30,000 tents of all shapes, sizes and colors while attending what is billed as "the world's largest demonstration of outdoor campcraft, cooking and fellowship."

The encampment site covers 1,900 acres. Jack Hovis of Salem will accompany the boys as scoutmaster. Bruce Nichols of East Palestine and Don Ramsey of East Liverpool will be assistant scoutmasters.

The following boys will make the trip: Gary Barker, George Boekling, Fred Crowgey, Todd Duncan, Paul Finnema, Richard Green, Richard Martin and Robert Salmen, all of Salem; James Wallover, Vernon Shaffer, Gilbert Richards, Jonathan Ramsey, Terry Calhoun and Randy Calhoun, East Liverpool; Albert Barber, Jack Brown, William Cyrus, Robert Foster, John Morlan and Gary Schlag, Columbiana; Dean Watson, and Alan Sims, Chester; Richard Fittanti, Stephen Koch, Danny Unger, Robert Unger and Mark Wilhelm, New Waterford, and Kenneth Nash, Thomas Sutherland, Robert Mollenkopf and Shawn Hall, East Palestine.

BPW Delegation To Attend National Sessions At Detroit

Mrs. Ethel L. Wambaugh, third vice president and alternate for the Ohio Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, and Miss Joan Witt, first vice president and delegate of the East Liverpool Club, will leave Friday for the annual convention of the National Federation Sunday through Thursday at Detroit.

Mrs. Wambaugh was one of five Ohio representatives delegated to attend the pre-convention program of the Business and Professional Women's Foundation Saturday at the Statler-Hilton Hotel.

Principal speakers at the pre-convention program will include Mrs. Mary Dublin Keyserling, recently appointed by President Johnson to serve as director of the Women's Bureau of the Department of Labor.

The Ohio Federation will sponsor the "Early Bird Breakfast" on Tuesday morning. Mrs. Wambaugh was named as hostess for three special guests at the breakfast: Miss Olive Huston, mayor of Xenia; Mrs. Jean Rainey, vice president of the public relations firm of Rainey & McEnroe, and Miss Helen Kraus, second vice president of the national BPW.

Program workshops will be conducted simultaneously in many areas. Mrs. Wambaugh will serve as a discussion leader in the public relations workshop, where experts in broadcasting, reporting and photography will be the speakers.

Miss Witt was named hostess for the president of the Iowa Federation to serve throughout the week. She will present the president with a gift basket of items contributed by club members and were made by the Hall China Co.

Miss Witt also was named to the Ohio BPW "Industrial Sharemanship" committee, which is arranging an exhibit of Ohio products.

This display is planned to present an opportunity to see how the products of Ohio affect the economy of the state and its neighbors.

Hall China has donated items from its new "super ceramic" line for the national exhibit, as it has done in previous years.

Procedures Changed To Ask Tax Number

Melvin J. Burton, district director of the Internal Revenue Service, said today at Cleveland that persons needing Social Security numbers for tax purposes in the future should apply to any local office of the Social Security Administration or Internal Revenue Service.

Special procedures in effect the last two years for issuing the numbers centrally from Baltimore have been discontinued. Burton said the volume of new requests has declined to the point where it is believed issuance can be handled at the local level more efficiently.

Tax-payers are required by law to enter their tax account (Social Security) number on tax returns. Recipients of dividends and interest are required to furnish the number to payers of income who must report the payments to Internal Revenue.

Dalrymple Campaign Chairman Appointed

Four East Liverpool men have been named co-chairmen for the East Liverpool area in the campaign being conducted for Allen J. Dalrymple of Wellsville, Republican candidate for the 18th District congressman.

Named at an issue and planning session Tuesday night at Wellsville were Frank A. Dawson, Dr. John Fraser, Lee Lawrence and Ernest Lowe. Collin L. Neal, secretary - treasurer of the Dalrymple - for - Congress committee, said other meetings with similar groups are planned throughout the district.

Dalrymple spoke briefly and said "the primary issue of this campaign is the decline of our district—a decline which has been precipitated by a withering of our economic base." He added: "We need permanent jobs, not government dole."

Files Libel Suit

CLEVELAND (AP)—William C. Sandberg filed a $250,000 libel suit against the Forest City Publishing Co., publisher of the Plain Dealer, Tuesday. The East Side man alleged he was identified as a Communist and thereby libeled in a Feb. 6 story about picketing by the Congress of Racial Equality at Central Police Station. Sandberg said in his petition he renounced Communism 24 years ago.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Be a good one and pull me out of the "Valley of Indecision." Should I marry the guy or not?

Lorin is 30. I'm 23. We have gone together 13 months. He was married five years ago but never talks about it. My parents try to conceal their dislike for him, but it shows.

Lorin is a salesman, and a good one but he is always short of money. He has lost his wallet three times since I've known him and I've had to lend him money to make the payments on his car.

Jealousy is his worst fault. He has a habit of telephoning me after every date — he claims it's to say "Goodnight" but actually he's checking to see if I'm late-dating.

One night I was in the shower and didn't hear the phone. He came over and sat on the porch all night. I found him asleep on the swing when I went to work the next morning at 7:30. I had a tough time convincing him I had been in the house the whole time.

Now, on the positive side: He is very good-looking and appeals to me physically. Well, that does it. I have been sitting here 15 minutes and I can't think of one other thing to say.

Don't bother to answer this letter. You have helped me more than you know. Thank you.—EYES OPENED.

Dear Eyes: I'm not answering your letter — just printing it. It may open a few other eyes.

Yearly Imposition

Dear Ann: The young woman next door is a disorganized, ad-debrained wisp of a thing who manages to have a baby every year with about as much effort as most people use to whip up a batch of cookies.

I'm not criticizing large families, Ann, but for the last three years I'm the one who has been stuck with her children when she has gone to the hospital. Her labor pains always come as a big surprise—as if she didn't even know she was pregnant. Last night her husband appeared at the door with their four youngsters and gasped. "Ellie has to go to the hospital right away. Please help us out."

"Help us out" means five days of caring for their four and my three. I have known since February that Ellie would be needing help about this time. She had five months to make arrangements. What should I do next year?—JUST PLAIN MAD.

Dear Just: The minute you notice Ellie is pregnant help her line up someone who can come at a moment's notice. Check periodically to make sure the woman can be depended on. If the tribe appears at your door next year tell them you'll go to their house and sit with the kids till the hired woman arrives.

What Is A Wink?

Dear Ann: What does a wink mean? A certain flirt in our crowd has always made a big fuss over my husband. Although he pretends he hasn't noticed, I'm sure he must be very much aware of it.

Last night at a party I watched this woman across the room and when something amusing was said by one of the guests she gave my husband a very seductive wink. I said nothing to him but it irritated me.

And now I would like you to tell me—what does a wink actually mean? — SLIGHTLY JEALOUS.

Dear Jealous: Some winks are harmless little gestures—used to punctuate sentences. These winks are about as sexy as a jab in the ribs with a sharp elbow.

And then there is the wink that telegraphs a feeling of intimacy—to let the receiver know he has been singled out to share a delicious secret moment. But why be concerned? Your husband was the receiver, not the sender.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Soldier On Furlough Finds Father's Body

CINCINNATI (AP) — A Cincinnati soldier came home on furlough from Ft. Knox, Ky., and found his father's body Tuesday in the older man's apartment. Police said Timothy Hollon, 57, had been dead three to four weeks. They said there was no sign of violence.

PFC Robert Hollon made the grim discovery after breaking down the door on the fourth-floor apartment where his widowed father had been living alone.

Bringing Up A Family

By DR. GARRY MYERS

Cry-Baby Vexing Problem For Parents

Many parents write me of the child over four or five who often cries. Frequently he is the older of two children. An Ohio mother writes:

"I have two children, boys, age five and six. The older is the one I'm writing about. He's what the medical doctors I have taken him to call a natural Dr. Garry Myers crier. I am at my wit's end trying to cope with him and wonder if you could please advise me."

"He has always cried, mostly for no reason. He has caused so much trouble and heartache in this home that everyone is constantly under pressure, even his little brother. I know now that his biggest fault is not so much he just wants to cry, but because he has no patience, none at all. He won't wait for anything."

"If he doesn't cry when he goes to the table, he's sure to cry before he leaves; every meal in the same. If the five-year-old finishes before he does, he cries. If I leave the table before he does, or my husband, he cries."

"HE CRIES when he misplaces something and must look for it; when he's dressed for school and has to wait for the bus; when his brother finishes meals or dressing first; when he has to change his clothes; when his brother learns a new lesson faster; and when he's the last one out of the door or car."

"I sometimes think he enjoys causing trouble, because I know he has some control. Sometimes a week or even two will pass without his crying. At these times he's a normal, laughing child and we all enjoy so much having these all too brief periods; then one morning it starts all over again and months will pass in misery for us all."

Every doctor we have taken him to says the same thing—he is healthy, vigorous, and there is no physical reason for his crying."

My reply in part. Dad should spend a lot of time with the older one — making things with him, reading to him, going places with him, even without the brother. You and your husband should try to have more fun with him during his non-crying times.

AVOID ANY comparison between these two children. It's possible that the younger one gets so many approvals and the older boy gets so many disapprovals that he supposes he isn't loved as much as his brother.

The chances are that you are so upset when the child cries that you finally do for him what he wants you to do. Make sure he doesn't get anything by crying for it. Say nothing about his crying; just act as if you don't hear it. Work over a long period of time to make him more secure.

Of course, he needs to learn to wait. When you and your husband are talking, for example, and he breaks in, rebuke him or send him away to sit in a chair for 25 minutes, doing nothing, unamused. Be sure you and Dad are very consistent; train him as if you both were one person.

"SAY 'NO' JUST once—and don't repeat any command. When he must be punished, the best way is to require him to sit for 25 minutes as measured by the clock where you can see him. And be sure his younger brother doesn't mess up his things or tease him."

My bulletins, "When the Child Cries," "Preventing and Reducing Jealousy," and "Celebrate Your Child's Successes" may be secured by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.
